ADV. UDAIVEER SINGH BINDRA

Managing Director Global Empire Events & BizNation TV

Meri aaj ke yuvao se aaj ki young generation se ek appeal hai jo Swami Vivekananda ji keh gaye the. "Utho Jago aur tab tak mat ruko, jab tak manzil na prapt hojaye" the youth today has enough knowledge to do the right things they need to do for themselves, the only thing stopping us is the first step, take the first step and you will be half way there.

Whenever I am on the Platform of Global Empire Events or I write for the Magazine I always mention a Quote which goes like this "Vasudev Kutambakam" which means the world is a big family & as we have gathered under this platform I'll urge everyone of you to clap for yourselves for your achievements, accomplishments & hardwork.

I'll share a story of How Global Empire Events started & a story of how i think a brand can be built from my perspective. BizNation TV was started before Global Empire Events was even thought of BizNation TV was started as a digital marketing agency back in my hometown Ludhiana Punjab, which was struggling to make a name as it was a digital marketing boom in 2020 and there was a lot of competition. Initially I gathered clients through advertising on Facebook and Instagram but the result was not very sustaining. Being a firm believer of change and being dynamic I then introduced doing video podcasts on BizNation TV with our existing business clients where they started sharing there entrepreneurial journeys, it was something interesting, New & something different from what how people were doing digital marketing. Now we were not only doing digital marketing, we were also promoting Entrepreneurship and Education based individuals through our platforms. BizNationTV started to build its name in the market, but the spark was lacking.

Then we thought why not create a platform where we don't just have one Entrepreneur or Educators but, 100, 200, 300 Educators and a huge networking platform and here we are today conceptualizing events under Global Empire Events seeing visionary leaders.

Talking about BizNation TV, it's the backbone of Global Empire Events all the designing to the digital marketing, anything and everything is being done in House today.

So I'll just say if you have any digital marketing needs - get in touch with us on BizNation TV with all our digital marketing services one call away from you.

RAVINDER KAUR

Economic independence is real freedom for women

I Ravinder Kaur , popularly known as Kaur Madam in professional era. Recollect my journey started from small village BOLEWAL my school mates are still working as home makers. Once who were very close to me. Now hesitate to visit me or contact me on phone Simply because of the gap. Gap of sticking to home making and getting exposure of professional world. I am happily blessed with economic independence. Upgrading my family from village life to urban life till their settlement in abroad ( Now PR in Australia) which was not possible due to poor economic conditions of the family and health issues of my father... Being elder in family I shouldered each and every responsibility. Putting aside enjoyments of young age and it's temptations even postponed marriage decision.

To come out of previous social family structures to lead peaceful career oriented life I got inter caste marriage as per my personal choice. Now I am running educational business with aim of earning and helping needy students. I have achieved number of certifications by British council, IDP, person Test Of English, Train the Trainer programs by Mr. Allen Devenport, IELTS Experts. Thousands of the Students, Teachers, professors, house makers, have been settled in abroad and India after taking the training from Kaur IELTS Academy.

Our success rate is a key strength to create new chapters of excellence in the field of education. My efforts have been recognized by IWA Seeta etc. My dream is to be a successful business woman setting an example for others like I get motivated from several personalities whom I came across in life... I believe focusing on basic ethics, moral values and maintaining healthy principles in my professional life. I Need support and blessings of each and everyone reading this passage apart from grace of Almighty.

SHASHI BALA

Motivational Speaker, Social Worker

I started my career as a Teacher. I used to teach children upto Primary. But suddenly my mother got paralysed, I had to quit the job to take care of her. After few years I joined Kotak Mahindra Life Insurance as a financial Advisor.

In the beginning it was tough for me to convince the customer and believe them in the Brand and ensure the customers receive excellent solutions to meet their needs. After doing well in this profession, circumstances compelled me to leave the profession in between.

In the meantime I continued with my Social Work and teaching underprivileged children free of cost. Seeing my past performance, Period of Pandemic Kotak Life Insurance again approached me to re-join this profession.

I started my journey with Kotak. During Covid 19 I achieved the target. Now I am recruiting the people under me and give them business also. I love to spend time with My Kotak Family and believe this will be the India's Best Life Insurance Company.

STALGY MULIYIL

Stalgy Muliyl - Transformational Coach, is the Director of Human Resources at Cargosol Logistics Ltd - a one-stop destination for all your freight needs. Apart from spearheading the Organizational Development division at Cargosol, she is also at the forefront, leading the dynamic Corporate Communications team. Transformational Coach by profession, she also serves as a part-time faculty with the premier institute MasterMyLife (MML) specialized in providing education on Coaching.

An alumnus of Mumbai University, Stalgy completed her Masters in Emotional Intelligence and Life Coaching at the top of her class. With vigour to bring a change, she has ignited this transformational journey among several coachees - in the fields of life, executive, career and relationship coaching. She envisions to make an impactful difference.

Before venturing into the Coaching arena, Stalgy has navigated the fields of sales, marketing and customer service. She dabbled with computers, mobile phones and the plastic industries. Until a moment, when she pondered over her life's purpose. Her inclination towards understanding human behaviour and optimizing potential, drove her towards Search & Recruitment firms. Thus, began her association with 'Human' resources and also worked for L & T handling Corporate Global Recruitments.

Years later, stagnation slowly crept into the HR role. However, Stalgy's desire to grow and evolve superseded this stagnation. After a gap of 18 years, Stalgy plunged into a 2- year full time Masters course, re-calibrating herself to the classroom format of learning. She embraced every semester with optimism and confidence. Through her Masters course, she had the opportunity to address her own personal blind spots, and with each semester, she was shaping a new version of herself.

It was now time to 'give back'. Cargosol - that is where it all began. All learnings were curated into training sessions for the employees. Eventually, Stalgy offered her coaching expertise to the visionary leadership of Cargosol, to help them resolve any roadblocks and limiting beliefs, for the betterment of them as individual leaders and for the progress of the organization. She then moved on to the middle management - the leaders in the making. Stalgy went beyond boundaries, and offered the best coaching experience to students and mid and senior corporate professionals.

It is inevitable to be confused about a life choice or defeated by failures or lost with no goal. Coaching offers that float to drift through the strong currents. Stalgy has completed her Accredited Coach Training Program (ACTP) as she aspires to add on the title of Professional Certified Coach (PCC) very soon. She is also pursuing her Ph.D in Human Resources from Woxsen University, Hyderabad. Stalgy also specializes in psychometric assessments like MBTI, DISC, SHL & MAAP adding knowledge asset to her coaching toolkit.

She speaks the language of change, learning & transformation. Her life's purpose is to make a difference in the lives of one coachees, who then amplifies and multiplies that difference to their world. Stalgy's mission has and will always be to unlock potential, transform and empower.

PRERNA A JAIN

'Success doesn't just find you. You have to go out and get it'

This is PRERNA A JAIN from PINK CITY JAIPUR, RAJASTHAN. Born and brought up in a middle-class family. Never ever learnt much in school. Got married in a very early age of 18. After my marriage, My life changed with full of responsibility and family to endure. Though was busy in family & children, but still had that desire to do something in my life. But as you know everything doesn't seem right all the time. And the time flew, and I was diagnosed with health issue which caused a lot of pain to handle.

Joined many classes to release stress but did not work out any. Then someone recommended me HEALING CLASS. With a hope to improve my health, I joined the class and attended all the lectures given through. It changed me. Not only it made me change my life but also gave a new hope to do some positive work in my life and that's when I start learning PRANIC HEALING. Learned all the course from scratch and started serving myself into the society. With time, I also learned some modalities like Numerology, Vastu, Meditation, Tarot card reading, Watch analysis, Face reading, Astrology and other related course. It has given me away to serve for the welfare of the people in the society. With blessing of God and great people around me, I started my own NGO in the name of 'VIGNAHARTHA WELLBEING FOUNDATION'. Through this initiative, I started helping many people who were in need of food & clothes. This not only helped people but also gained much happiness by their smiles. Healing and Meditation not only helped me but gave away to face your difficulties with peace and calmness. This field has changed my life into a beautiful small world where I change people with hope and love all around. And this way I started teaching and spread my knowledge into the community. Many cases came from different part of the INDIA & OTHER COUNTRIES and they have felt such amazing results that it cherished me for life.

Today, I am a healer, Coach, Wrist watch analyst, Numerologist, Vastu Consultant and now I have only one goal and that is 'TO HEAL PEOPLE AND GIVE THEM A NEW HOPE OF LIFE'.

HERE ARE SOME OF MY CASES WHICH I HAVE TAKEN AND HEALED THEM WITH PRANIC HEALING -

1. A patient from Nasirabad was in coma since last 17 days, I conducted healing regularly and within 2 days of healing, he was out of coma.
2. An other case was from Bangalore where a 14 year old girl was mentally disable.
3. A case arrived to me from Mumbai where a person was blind and he was preparing for his entrance exam. He passed the exam with highest marks in whole class And that's where his wish to become a banker became and he fulfilled it.

There are many more such cases which changed their life for good. God has been kind to me to give me such a blessing to serve for the community and give a change of peace all around.

RICHA SINGH

Richa Singh is an enthusiastic educationist, who mentors learners to fulfill their dreams of becoming successful engineers and doctors. But, before that, the focus is on inculcating good habits in students and making them good human beings.

She believes in "every student, everywhere, should reach their highest potential."

Her motto is "converting DREAMS INTO REALITY".

She understands the psychology of teenagers and makes them overcome all the pressure faced by them, through proper guidance and counselling.

Richa is a B. Tech from Harcourt Butler Technological Institute, Kanpur. Her professional journey started with working in software companies like INFOSYS, IBM, but life took her to a different turn. She developed that passion for teaching by just helping the neighbouring students. Later, she tried to convert it into a full-time profession, with the motive of returning to the society.

With around ten years of teaching experience, she has helped mentor around five thousand students till date to fulfill their dream of cracking IITJEE or NEET UG. Others are successful pilots, businessmen, army officials. She believes in overall holistic growth of the learners.

She is admired by so many students. She is a motivation and role model for many female students.

Achievements.

- For her learning is a never-ending process. Hence, she also got selected for Executive Management Programme conducted by NSRCEL at Indian Institute of Management, Bangalore - Sponsored by Goldman Sachs under 10 K Women Programme.

Social Welfare

In modern times, seeing the problem of senior citizens, she is actively looking for alternate solutions. Currently, actively helping them through Swaraj Ashram Kanpur to meet the needs of 70 senior citizens. Hope we grow more.

DE ARIA CREATIONS - MS. MANISHA D NIRMAL

I never daydreamt about Success,
I worked for it...

Had been questioning myself, what do I want out of my life? This question bothered many people when the Pandemic 2020 hit us all..

Holding my standards and values, high of myself as my career with Testing, Inspection and Certification MNC organizations as (SGS, TUV-SUD, Intertek etc) for last 22 years, Heading Business Development for Western Region of India –Consumer Products Division, for various services commodities as Toys & Stationery, Hardlines, Softline, Leather & Footwear, Chemical & Dyes etc., with that in mind, I believe , listening patiently, speaking logically and thoughtfully assisting my clients, made me a reliable and well- recognized as business development manager within various industries circles. These experiences thought me meaningful lessons on how to interact with Peers and Clients.

Last +20yrs, planning, self -motivation, determination, taking action on time whether it is short-term etc, takes courage to keeping a good head on your shoulders in the face of hardship. It had never been an easy way though as a careerwomen with motherhood. Painting, Reading Books are always a stressbuster. Having passion for running, had actively participated 4 times for 10km Marathon run in Mumbai and Thane respectively.

One of my experienced served as a pivotal moment in my life and the path that i had been walking all along lead finally for “De Aria Creations” to see the day of light, Estb 21.11.2021.

My clients, well-wishers, their ongoing belief in my business inspires me to meet and exceed their every expectation. Thank you for your business, your trust, and your confidence. “De Aria Creations” take pride in your business with us.

I have always looked-for having one of these beautiful awards on my shelf, and today, it’s a reality.

This isn’t the end goal, but the beginning of the new journey. It has motivated me to do better and my best is yet to come...Hence what’s NEXT will always be the driving force within. Sometime i am restless and sometime I rest less

DR. ITI SAMANTA

Transformational Entrepreneurship.

Dr. Iti Samanta is a renowned name in every Odia household. Living a childhood in utter poverty she has now evolved as the force to eliminate the misery-stricken plight of others. Apart from contributing immensely to revamping the Odia language, literature, art, and culture through publishing two Odia magazines having worldwide prominence, running an apparel designing house focusing on conserving and promoting the Odian art. She has even received the National Award for best film production for "Kathantara".

She is administering two schools in a remote place far from the city equipped with all advanced prerogatives as a part of her social commitment. These schools have ensured the best education is being imparted at school and also have successfully provided job opportunities to many.

The transformational entrepreneurial model she has adopted is serving as the innovative solution to the grand problems we are facing at present. As modern problems need modern solutions to be meted out, a dedicated research team is engaged throughout the year to study the human behavioural changes incurring.

For Iti madam, it is not just managing an enterprise but adding dignified virtue to the entire system so that there will be ample opportunity for social reformation to take place and consequently everyone at various strata can reap benefits.

KUMUD JHA

1. I am from Motihari (Bihar). My father was a clerk in the army. I have two brothers, I had studied up to the 10th standard in my village school. After that, I studied at Ranchi Women's College, joined CRPF in 2003. Due to some reason I left the job, then I started living in Ranchi with my husband who is working in the Railways. But I started feeling emptiness after sitting idle at home so I opened a school and got involved in social service. The habit of serving the country was in the blood, so it was not worth sitting in the house. Then in 2019 I joined Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) and started working with many NGOs and organizations so that I could do something for the society.

2. Like I told that the service of the country was in the blood so it always kept me motivated for the service. Now that I joined the social service, I had only one thought in my mind to help the needy in any way possible and also help women whether it is related to their employment or their rights. The turning point came when the corona epidemic came as a curse in the society, in this period it became my goal to meet the needs of the people whether it's sanitizer, food, cloth supply of oxygen to anyone who is in the need of it and to provide facility or money to everyday laborers and I was trying to defeat covid by setting up vaccination camps at remote areas. And at the time when people were battling for finding beds at that time, with the help of the whole team and from the hospital and administration, we were engaged 24x7 to get people oxygen, ambulance etc.

3. It is difficult to balance my work and home but it is not impossible my husband and children who are still young give me their full support. I have to be responsible at home and think of the customs of the society while handling my work. Sometimes I forget about myself during all these responsibilities but I feel relief and happiness.

4. I have never been a dreamy person but doing the CRPF job was my dream which was also fulfilled but had to leave due to family problems, but this blank phase in my life made me a teacher so that I could also be busy, teach my own children and contribute something for the society. From here I can contribute towards social service which I always liked since my childhood and used to do little by little political help is also needed in social service, that's why I have also come towards politics. And seeing the spark in the people's eyes keeps me happy and motivated and my life feels worthwhile.

5. I have been working for the trans community and fsw for the last 2 years. For the first time in Jharkhand, an attempt was made to connect the transgender to the mainstream by making a transgender identity card. With the cooperation of many people and organizations, 7 transgenders also got a job in the Tata group and the effort continues.

6. In the coming time, there are many schemes for the employment of women, I believe that when women are in charge of the rule it will bring a change in the society, many stereotypes regarding women will be removed. The increase in women's empowerment the family will be clean and then the society will also move forward so all my attention is on women and children. I want to appeal to the government and the people of the society that more work should be done in this field.

DR. DEEPANJALI BEHERA

Dr. Deepanjali Behera is an educationist cum researcher in the field of public health with a decade of teaching and research experience. An alumna of India's prestigious university - Tata Institute of Social Science (TISS) Mumbai, she received international work opportunities to engage with reputed universities and organizations in countries like Thailand and Australia very early in her career.

Previously, she has also worked with the prestigious global development research organization J-PAL South Asia followed by holding key positions in government and non-government health organizations.

During her stint outside India, she has taught international Master of Public Health students during which she gathered expertise in new and innovative teaching approaches for higher education students.

Subsequently, she decided to return back to India and contribute towards quality teaching pedagogy for Indian students. Dr. Deepanjali uses a variety of innovative participatory learning approaches such as problem solving through case studies, application based group assignments, interactive queries redressal sessions, sharing of supplementary audio-visual contents and published journal papers for advanced learning to name a few. She provides equal opportunity to all her students to participate and gives specific emphasis to support the lagging students in her class.

"Her clear and confident guidance throughout my post- graduation course has been invaluable. Her teachings through practical sessions, hands-on exercises, collaborative learning methods, project - based learnings along with case discussions had made the public health subject so easy and interesting for all the students of our batch. Me and my batchmates never imagined that public health could be this much interesting. We thought it was all about data and calculating prevalence, incidence but then happened to be Dr. Deepanjali Behera's lecture and our perspective changed. She always finds way to engage and motivates her student." - Dr. Snehasish Tripathy, MPH (2018-20 batch)

Dr. Deepanjali has completed several certificate programs from Harvard School of Public Health, USA; University of New South Wales (UNSW), Australia and University of Copenhagen. She has completed several research projects as a Principal Investigator and published 13 research papers in peer-reviewed international journals. Moreover, she is serving as a review editor in Frontiers in Public health journal and as a reviewer in many high impact factor journals including PLOS one, Global Implementation Research and Applications among others.

Coming from a humble family background, Dr. Deepanjali always aspired to achieve professional excellence and be an inspiration for young girls with less affluent upbringings. She loves interacting and training young minds to build next generation public health specialists who can play pivotal role in achieving healthier India and the world in years to come.

MS. KANAK RAINA MOUDGIL

Kanak Raina Moudgil is a 'Corporate Global Mobility Expert turned into 'an Entrepreneur'. After 17+ years of corporate life, she took the courage to start from the scratch to run her own venture. Currently Kanak runs her own hiring & consulting firm named 'The Merakkizone Consulting' and is also a Partner with a Global Executive Search Firm named 'Talent Mobility Search'.

Kanak has got her commerce degree from one of the best colleges of Delhi University, Jesus & Mary College. She comes with over 18 years of experience across Expat Tax, Global Mobility and HR Operations. Having started her career with expatriate tax within the Big 4, she then moved in-house industry role gaining extensive experience managing the mobility operations at a global investment bank. During her corporate stint, she has held a leadership position in Mobility Operations at BlackRock and has also worked with Ernst & Young and KPMG as a core member of their India tax & advisory teams.

Global Mobility is a very niche profile globally wherein people still struggle to appreciate & understand its importance & criticality. Lack of understanding in the industry about this profile, recruiters and search firms struggle to help employers find the right talent and vice versa too. This made Kanak take the bold step of leaving her corporate job and started her own venture of a search business wherein she has now been helping clients and individuals find the right solution along with providing mobility advisory services. In addition to helping individuals find their right jobs, Kanak also helps them coach & mentor being a mobility expert herself!

" In my 1.5 years of business domain stint I have successfully worked with some global clients and have helped a lot of individuals finding the right job and have mentored some of them as well."

My mission is to connect the right candidate to the right role at the right organisation by fully understanding the aspirations and needs of both parties. I do this by building long-term relationships through honest dialogue and a transparent process and shall continue to do so in order to build an empire out of my start up!

MS. KRITI ASHISH

I'm Kriti Ashish, a textile revivalist, an entrepreneur and a literature-arts seeker throughout my life with masters in human resource development and a visionary to see life beyond. All these years of my multiple professional careers I worked on numerous projects for government and NGO organisations. I had an opportunity to open a few projects of my creativity, including KAAJ as the export house of BANDHANI and tie-dye. KIDSKEY as a platform for kids' education. Also, my venture COLLETTE PROJECTS works for power energy and infrastructures for the Indian northeastern region and Ladakh EPC. However, running behind the material world and success was never my goal. And the disappointments and stress that I took while surfing into the waters of the economic world, I was led by a spiritual awakening after many years of meditation and seeker of RAJ-YOGA. And this awakening brought major changes in my life and its purposes. Hence I decided to completely switch over to the spiritual path and awaken souls as my soul mission and became a writer. My inclination towards yoga from my granny was a gift I carried all my life as a GPS to guide me and serve mankind.

With the experience of "DHYANA" for more than 28 years and my experiments with truth and Vedic knowledge, I came across many spiritual soul tribe people for guidance to illuminate the path of cosmic powers and energies to become a lighthouse for many turned me into MYSTIC.

LORD OF TINY PONDS, SLAVE OF BIGGER VISIONS

At an very early stage of life, it gave me opportunities to trial and test my strength and come out not as a victim but a survivor whether child trafficking or kandla earthquake. My visions and leading life inspired by simple most "extra"ordinary people I came across made me an entrepreneur since young age and a spiritual seeker as well. Time has come that we all as human beings should unite for a global cause and work upon our skills to benefit mother nature. A true leader is a lighthouse for society and its people. NAMASTUBHYAM

MS. MADHU THIRANI

It all began 30 years ago. Being married into a family of tea estate owners, I have had the privilege of understanding up close how agriculture impacted livelihoods.

As an artist that has enjoyed global appreciation and recognition, My art has taught me to be cohesive with one's environment placing an emphasis on the rhythm between elements. Just how it is with nature.

With a population of 1.27 billion people, 70% of India's rural households primarily still depend on agriculture for their livelihood.

Sustainable farming becomes imperative in the world we live in where we need to be a conscious planet for resources.

We, at Nature's Gold Agritech (OPC ) Pvt. Ltd, aim to educate and advise farmers of challenges that face them around soil management, efficient water usage environment sustainability, provide them solutions on farm diseases and assist them in choosing the right crops for the region they belong.

As an agriculturist advisor the focus is on optimizing potential across the board by blending technology with science.

Our projects include vertical farming of different spices and vegetables such as turmeric, bell peppers and Irish cucumbers etc

By providing guidance to this massive population, the farmers, who contribute to the country's GDP growth, the resulting benefit is substantial in terms of productivity / sales.

As my initiative progresses, we are hoping we receive the cooperation from the government to expedite our goals in the empowerment of our farmers.

With a positive mindset and dedicated work ethics together we can always do so much more for the country .

Natures Gold Agritech (OPC) Pvt. Ltd.

MS. MEENA KOTHARI

This is the story of Meena, a wife, mother, daughter, trainer, woman, a leader who has represented INDIA on international platforms. An ordinary woman; who did extraordinary things. The story of a homemaker who made it big and has touched many lives, inspiring them to start from wherever they are standing.

How she made it big, what changed and how she transformed from M O M to W O W? You cannot be untouched for sure. This article is about her journey and the stakeholders of the story.

"बालिका अहंवालीका नव युग जनिता अहंवालीका । नाहमबला दुर्वला आदिशक्ति अहमम्बिका ॥"
"I am a modern age woman, I am not powerless. I am Adishakti, I am Ambika."

As it is rightly said 'all strong women are backed by her believers', and she had many. To begin with, her parents, father Mr. Shanti Lal Jain & mother Pista Devi, sculpted her warm nature and risk-taking attitude. The wings added by her father gave her the initial power to take up the flight to success. Never to discount the learnings inherited from her motherland! – North Lakhimpur, Assam, Meena acknowledges it and bows in reverence. As a dedicated child grabbed all opportunities to learn from life. She studied at St. Mary's & graduated in Accounting (Hons) which was just the start of the journey that awaited her. She completed her CA (Inter) from Chennai. In all this, she also tied the knot with Mr. Pramod Kothari, who is her best friend and ally. Meena is married into a Marwari Rajasthani family and was a satisfied homemaker. Mrs. Tolachand Kothari & Ratna Devi, and her in-laws are important stakeholders in her journey to immense success. They have always motivated and supported her to become an achiever par excellence.

The couple – Mr. Pramod Kothari & Meena are blessed with a son Shreyansh. A prodigal child, he is CS Engineer from VIT Vellore, who is working as an intern at the National University of Singapore, pursuing his CFA and has his own startup in hedge funds Golden Turtle Financial Services Pvt. Ltd. Her professional journey commenced on 2nd December 2004, as fate had commanded. She tried her hand in many fields & a lot of businesses: MLMs, tuitions, share brokering & many more. She was happy but not satisfied. Now Meena had no money to invest in any other business. Reluctantly she joined Max Life Insurance Company & it was the beginning of something unbelievable. Life took a bright turn.

On 13th March 2009, she became an inseparable part of Max Life. Meena Pramod Kothari is the Brand Ambassador of Max New York Life and is associated with almost all life and health insurance companies. She earned many accreditations and designations, awards and recognitions. This field bought her all the name, fame and money, while she was doing the noble deed of securing lives and family. However, there was a time she had to struggle to make ends meet. Hers is a story of rags to riches, struggle to success. We celebrate her indomitable spirit and power. We proudly bring to you her professional Designations, awards and recognitions.

Meena Pramod Kothari is a Professional Financial Advisor (PFA) acknowledged from Windsor Connecticut, USA, Limra. She is an AMFI and IRDA certified advisor and under the auspice of "All Ladies League" holds the position of "India Country Chair Development Financer" at the G100 wing. She is the director of Robinhood Initiative Assembly Pvt. Ltd., and continues as a member of "Teachers are Leaders Community [TLC]" and "Learner's Conclave Pvt. Ltd." Accredited by the Scottish Qualification Authority (SQA) & National Accreditation Board of Education & Training (NABET), she is a soft skill trainer and has achieved the Customized Award for Professional Program 'Train the Trainer'.

At present, she is active as the Launch Director of BNI (Business Networking International) Bhopal, and President of MP State Child Care Council for Women's Indian Chamber of Commerce and Industry (WICCI). She is a Vice President trainer and mentor for JCI Bhopal and has founded the "Jain Sheroes Bhopal" and is also the secretary of Jain Shwetambar Social Group.

Meena has been honoured with the "Best Advisor" award and has represented our country in Los Angeles and Toronto as an MDRT [MILLION DOLLAR ROUND TABLE] member. Her efforts have been crowned and awarded in London, Switzerland, Cape town, Amsterdam, Istanbul, Hong Kong, Macau, Dubai, Singapore, Phuket, Abu Dhabi, Singapore Cruise, Bali, and Colombo. She has touched and inspired many lives, has constantly worked for women's empowerment and is a true supporter of the women of strength.

As she always says,

वाणी रसवती यस्य, यस्य श्रमवती क्रिया। लक्ष्मीः दानवती यस्य, सफलं तस्य जीवितं॥

The person whose speech is sweet, whose work is full of labour, whose wealth is used in charity, his/her life is successful.

अर्थ – जिस मनुष्य की वाणी मीठी हो, जिसका काम परिश्रम सेभरा हो, जिसका धन दान करनेमें प्रयुक्त हो, उसका जीवन सफल है।

Knowledge Advisory

Her journey is an unending contribution to every woman who wishes to shine. She engraved her own niche, her own path, but has always stayed grounded and connected to the roots.

Blessed and supported by her family, friends and believers, she says –

"Life is a journey between B to D, BIRTH to DEATH! The C in between is all that matters, be brave to accept the CHANGE. Never leave a CHANCE to make great choices. Last, but not least! Life is a journey, so don't consider the obstacles as your end destination. Because, if I would have given up in 2004 believing that it is the end! I would have never led the path and achieved all that I have achieved so far."

Meena's journey is in high gear and we are more than happy to celebrate a strong woman like her. We wish her the best in all of her future endeavours.

She is en route to becoming a published author by the end of 2022. Her endless work towards giving back to society and women empowerment is keeping her motivated and moving. She believes that we make a living by what we get, but we make a life by what we give.

MS. NEHA SARAH

"Some women fear the fire, some women simply become it." – R.H. Sin

This quote describes Sarah's journey so far.

Born and brought up in Jaipur – The Pink City, Sarah has always been the inquisitive type. Never one to accept what is without asking questions, she has always found joy in exploring the different facets of everything.

From a youngster crazy about sports, she has now grown into an award-winning poetess.

Life has not been easy for her. A troubled childhood made her more empathetic towards other people's distress. She realized that what we lack most is someone to talk to, someone who would just listen and not pass judgement. And so, she took it upon herself to be that 'someone' for family and friends.

As she grew older and the more, she came across people struggling with mental and emotional issues, a deep desire to help started to take root in her being.

And she turned to poetry – her lifelong friend, therapist and confidante.

She started writing dark poetry – but instead of spreading more doom, her poetry talks about how even in the most difficult of situations, there is always a ray of hope if one just believes.

Initially she was apprehensive about sharing her poems with the world. But with support and encouragement from her family and friends, she finally started her own poetry page on Instagram called 'soulresounds'.

While thinking of an apt handle – she instantly came up with 'soul resounds' because she felt that that is exactly what her poetry was – a resounding of the thoughts and emotions of her own soul.

She was amazed to see the amount of people who found her work relatable. And once, she realized that she was making a positive difference in the lives of the readers – there was no stopping her. She started to reach out to more people to understand what causes them distress and to help spread awareness through her poems.

The world is not very kind to 'sensitive' people or to those who are struggling. But Sarah has taken it upon herself to bring about a change, especially around the stigma that surrounds mental and emotional health issues.

She writes and she also talks to people. She doesn't have all the answers, but that doesn't stop her from lending her shoulder when someone needs support.

As an upcoming poetess, she was also faced with the problem of getting her work noticed. The Instagram algorithm hasn't been very kind to her or other poets either. It focuses more on quantity than quality.

And so, another idea planted itself and Vaguesoulsunite – a writing community on Instagram was born.

VSU, as it is lovingly called is run by 4 passionate women – Sarah (Founder), Sonia (Page Manager & Live Host), Vidhi. (Director – Creatives) and Pakhi (Story Manager). But don't let these designations fool you for this team of 4 women do so much more.

VSU provides upcoming as well as established poets and writers a platform to showcase their work and get the recognition they deserve. Poets from all around the world are featured. VSU Live hosts read curated pieces and try to spread awareness about new poets and their work. Prompt challenges are organized to encourage and motivate people to let their creativity out.

And the best part of VSU – all this is absolutely FREE.

"When our team receive DMs requesting us to feature a particular poem or help a writer promote their book – we prepare personalized posts. We share our designs with the poet/writer and in collaboration with them – we present their work on our platform for our followers to see and engage with."

Sarah is a warrior princess. She has survived through some tough times in her life, and she feels that if she can – so can everyone.

She holds a master's degree in Psychology and has 7 years of experience as a Facilitator. During her tenure she has worked in some of the best schools in Jaipur as well as a school in Dubai.

From an educationist to a corporate trainer, her true passion has always been writing. She has decided to throw caution to the winds and focus on her writing and make that her full time career. She has just finished her first short novel – a psychological thriller and is in talks with publishers to get it printed and distributed.

A new chapter is about to begin in Sarah's life and while there is hesitation; there is also the sense of freedom and excitement about finally being able to do something on her own terms.

"There is no force more powerful than a woman determined to rise." – W.E.B. Dubois

MS. TINA SINGH

Globally, the B2B Market is twice the size of the B2C market in terms of transaction amount. India is expected to be the next battleground after china. Increased usage of Mobile and Internet platforms which are providing all kinds of solutions from sourcing, research and delivery. Development of Artificial Intelligence and Machine learning algorithms to identify people behavior and segmentation of categories and social media marketing and analytics which will drive traffic and increase user penetration, can be counted as some of the major reasons behind the propelling B2B market in India. With a vision to bridge the gap between buyers and sellers, Tina Sharma, seized the opportunity presented by B2B marketplace and established Dial4Trade a digital platform for small and medium businesses to support manufacturing, export and wholesale business in india. While selling and buying might seem cake walk to most, vendors often struggle when it comes to finding the right buyer. As we always say that there are two India - one that is modern and tech-smart; and then the other that is yet to rise to this level - we call it Bharat. The real business potential lies in this other India or Bharat. All that it needs is a little technological and digital upgrade. And this is where Dial4Trade comes into play," says Tina Singh, Co-Founder, Dial4Trade. Our aims to help entrepreneurs to maximize the potential of their businesses digitally

Tina Sharma belongs to a Middle Class family, where his family had a small business. Tina happened to witness many such small businesses who had to limit themselves in his nearby domestic market only due to communication issues, Time, Costing, Sourcing, Delivery etc. This inspired him to do something for the small businesses to bring them up to be at par with the modern business world. Tina Sharma started a B2B business where businessmen from small cities and towns can do online business. She has found some of the best marketing, sales, and tech professionals to form a winning team . A very humble start to help businesses to digitally maximize their potential. In all these things, getting strong support from the family is something that can't be missed.

Dial4Trade is the fastest-growing B2B Marketplace providing an all-in-one Marketing Platform for Small and Medium businesses to promote their business, products and services online. We empower our registered buyers and sellers around the world to start and grow their businesses with our smart marketing solutions and tools and award-winning support. Started a new beginning in 2017 and headquartered in Delhi. We provide an ideal online platform for buyers and suppliers from across the globe, who can interact with each other and conduct the business smoothly, securely and effectively. Dial4Trade has taken the initiative to reform the client servicing segment by becoming the most promising B2B Portal in India and 360° Digital Marketing Solution Provider. Not only it is assisting buyers and sellers to connect with each other, but we are also providing Billing and Payment Solutions (VyapaarKhata), Company Brochure (BrochureMaker), Website Builder with eCommerce Solutions (SiteManager), CRM and Lead Manager (LeadXtra), payment protection Solutions (D4T PaySecure) and much more solutions and Tools. In fact, We provide a full time managed BuyerConnect service that connects Buyer & Seller and provides follow-up to buyer/seller to get the best deals and quotes. Dial4Trade provides other digital solutions like Domain / Custom Designing / SSL / Adword / SMO / SEO / PPC / Facebook Promotion etc. Dial4Trade strives to create a culture that empowers a humble, creative, and independent workforce. We are passionate about our small and medium business customers and believe that collaboration and creativity are powerful tools to help them make their dreams a reality. We believe that what makes us different makes us stronger. Building a more diverse, inclusive, and equitable organization is good for our teams, our customers, and our community. We empower each other to bring unique perspectives and experiences to work, and we continually seek new ways to do so.

The firm believes that in a successful company most work is accomplished by teams of individuals, because of this, it is important for employees to have the skills necessary to work effectively with others. "In our company, each member is responsible for contributing to the team, but the group as a whole is responsible for the team's success. When people feel connected to their work culture, they also become more productive and engaged. They are more likely to actively seek out advancement and less likely to jump ship," adds Tina Sharma. Focused on increasing trust between buyers and sellers, in the coming days, Dial4Trade will also vest its focus on becoming a complete product provider where a customer can use each and everything he requires in daily business. In this online world, it's very difficult to build trust between buyers and sellers, and Dial4Trade is constantly striving to bridge this gap.

MS. SHREETI SNIGDHA PAHI

Born to spread beauty

Right from my childhood I was hunted by only one question what I want to become in life . So success is a thing which was far off from my mind, because it was a complex and complicated situation,I was not sure what I am good at.

About me :-

Hi I am Shreeti Pahi founder of New You Unisex salons am 28 years old, my hometown is in bhubaneswar, odisha.i did my tech in the year of 2016 from ITER, Soa university then I did my job in a telecom company's worked there for 2 years

When I was in my late teens I found that I have got a penchant for this beauty industry but I never considered it as my carrier, while in job I realised that my creativity would be better honed in beauty industry , The decision was not easy to quit job and everybody around me thought that I am acting on an impulse so I never had an encouragement in true sense of the term, To be honest I was also ambivalent about starting a new venture but ultimately I decided to give it a go and I became successful. With time I understood that how important it is to have a guidance in the childhood which can spot a finger at your talent.

i started my First salon in November 2018, Getting good response from customers I started my second salon in November 2019.

my dream to be a successful women came true and now I got an opportunity to learn more and more about Makeup and beauty services at NEW YORK and I would also be working at New York Fashion Week in 2023,So I am absolutely elated.

Till now I have provided jobs to 30+ employees and gave education to skilled workers. Moreover, I have also dedicated myself to enhance women empowerment by providing education and employment through my organisation.

My dream is to open up an institute where I will introduce the new techniques of beauty industry in different courses and I will try to reach out to the common mass in an affordable price ,I will encourage women who wants to be entrepreneur in the same profession and also I will be making women aware of the necessity of makeup in corporate life

JAYA SHARMA

Honor your calling. Everyone has one. Trust your heart, and success will come to you” – Oprah Winfrey

There are very few people in this world who get to do what they love and have found their calling. During my school and college days, I was very clear since day one with what I wanted to do and achieve.

Being the first generation legal professional & entrepreneur along with the guidance of my Mentors and gurus, I started my professional journey in 2009 by founding Jaya Sharma & Associates. Our firm has been a corporate consultant & solution provider for entities of all sizes and categories.

Our firm is located in the finance Hub of India with a pan-India presence catering to international clients for more than a decade. We are Consultants and advisors to Startups, Secretarial, Legal Audits and Due Diligence, CSR (Corporate Social Responsibility) Audit and Consultancy, Corporate Governance Audit, NGO's Advisory and Compliances, NCLT (National Company Law Tribunal) & NCLAT (National Company Law Appellate Tribunal) for Company Law and IBC (Insolvency Bankruptcy Code) matters, FEMA Appearance & Compliance, Labour Laws license and Compliance, PoSH (Prevention of Sexual Harassment Act) Compliance, Trainer, External member on the IC (Internal Committee), Directors and Independent Directors advisory, Drafting and advisory on Agreement and Contacts, Trademarks & IPR (Intellectual property Rights).

We have clients ranging from telecom, hospitality, advertising associations, entertainment, banking & finance, associations who support SME's, foreign investors, real-estate, entertainment, start-ups, MSMEs, NGOs and more.

We always focus on one transaction at a time and give up 1000 percent dedication to that. At Jaya Sharma & Associates, we work closely with our clients to understand their vision, business, requirement, and their goals. Customising tailor-made solutions to the legal and practical issues for every transaction is our forte. As corporate legal advisors, we focus on achieving results by integrating our legal acumen with practical, creative business solutions tailored to our client's particular needs.

We are always focusing on creating the next line of leaders. In my opinion, a true leader is someone who lifts others to become a leader. The transformational journey has not happened over night and is a continuous progression.

Our firm's Bodha in-house learning sessions have weekly discussions with our team and the everyday change of law and amendments are analysed, practical implementations understood and the same is briefed to our clients in a very simplified way the benefits and the implementation through regular clientele updates.

We take extra efforts to update our clientele with regards to the ease of doing business, Make in India, Atmanirbhar Bharat, Start-ups and the various policies, incentives and benefits introduced by our Indian Government so as to take the maximum benefit of the schemes and for further growth.

Last 13+ years, planning, re-planning, self-motivation, execution, strong grit, action and follow up on time keeping in mind the short term and long-term goals, holding one head high despite of any setbacks and learning from the setbacks have been few of my major learning lessons I always speak of in my training sessions.

Being a working mother comes with its own terms and conditions. We take up additional roles be it a boss, employee, support system, care taker, teacher, cook and many more. In attempting to play so many multiple roles, we feel too stretched at times. Having a passion for reading, watching inspirational movies, playing badminton and writing short stories keeps me going.

Awards and recognitions always give a sense of do better, improvise and re-ignite the passion. Last year, I was recognised as one the top best women legal consultants 2021 by Women Entrepreneur magazine and this year I am glad of being nominated here for Dynamic Women Entrepreneur of the year.

Nominations, Recognitions and awards gives me the boost to work harder and smarter. This definitely is one the driving force to perform better than yourself as to previous year.

MS. SUMAN SOURABH

My name is Suman Saurabh and I live in Vaini Village Pusa. I am interested in education, social service, promotion of environmental awareness. Such an atmosphere has prevailed in my house since childhood as my parents were my guides.

Both were rich in liberal denial and liberal views. Proper development of personality took place in their upbringing. I am currently a research chariot and working on a topic related to folk music. Obviously my subject is music and I am a plus two teacher of music in Sarvodaya Mahavidyalaya.

Menstruation is an integral part related to women, despite this, due to lack of proper information and guidance, even today women in rural environment are careless about their body as I am associated with social service, so I have made special efforts in this direction and focused on this direction. Received training from the school's side and am continuously working in this field. The result of which was that in June 2022, I was awarded M.H.M. Star Award.

You can understand its importance from the fact that only one teacher was selected from each district. Also, let me add that I had distributed sanitary pads to the plus two girl students at the school. As I said earlier also music is my subject so every Sunday, I provide free education to the children of my village. I firmly believe in the concept of Pay back to society. Apart from this, the sacred work of feeding the children is done every Sunday. There is a teamwork towards which all the members are serious and responsible., I am also interested and involved in plantation for environmental cleanliness. It is my endeavor to make the villagers aware about the importance of cleanliness. Every year in the month of December, it is my endeavor to provide blankets, clothes, slippers to the elderly and the poor. I also like to make small street plays, through which I try to send some great message. One more important thing to add at the end is that till now we have supported marriages of two poor girls through our team.

The team has already done so many marriages. I got the inspiration to join the team from my father Late Shri Tuna Sah ji who supported 9 such marriages while he was alive. After marriage I got a very good support from my husband.

Thank you

SOMA SINGH

Mrs. Soma Singh

Partner at aaBco, Jaipur.

A Self-made Women Entrepreneur, Teacher, Social Worker, Vastu, and Numerology Consultant

Mrs. Soma Singh, partner and head of sales, marketing, and finance at aaBco, a Jaipur-based manufacturing company, was born and brought up into a disciplinarian family in Ranchi. Like most other middle-class parents, her father wanted her to marry off early and lead a peaceful life. But during her childhood days, her mother inspired her to get educated and fulfill her potential. Although Soma lost her at a young age, this did not deter her from achieving her dreams. An average student at school, she pursued MA in English Literature from Ranchi University. With a postgraduation degree in her hand, young Soma had many big dreams in her eyes. But as her family asked her to prioritize marriage over career plans, she conceded to their wishes and married a businessman, Mr. Ajay Jain. After six years of her marriage, she expressed her desire to work as a school teacher. Defying all the age-old perceptions about Indian men, her husband not only supported her decision but also came forward as an equal partner in raising their only daughter, Jigisha Jain.

For the next 6 years, she continued her teaching job before she realized her calling for entrepreneurship. In 2015, she joined her husband's candle manufacturing business, aaBco. During this time, the firm lacked the necessary infrastructure and the couple was mainly operating it from their home. For the bootstrapped start-up, the biggest challenge was to find a USP that can differentiate its products from the rest. Soma felt that the market could pick up if the candles were made more unique and fashionable because by this time, people had started using scented and designer candles for aromatherapy and home decor. The idea proved right and soon the company started getting many big orders. To meet this sudden hike in demand, the firm set up a proper manufacturing unit of 1000 sq. ft. Since then, there was no looking back.

In the next few years, Soma learned different aspects of business and with her creative mindset, she started to craft her brand's identity by manufacturing a diverse range of products, such as polyresin statues, essential oils, backflow smoke fountains, and candle stands. She also acquired many new skills, such as aroma therapy, pranic healing, numerology, and Vastu. Eventually, she kept on applying the knowledge gained from these areas to expand her business. Today, her company has acquired four manufacturing units, that too without availing any loan or investment fund. In such a less time, aaBco has achieved a pan-India reach and has been expanding its business worldwide. Its unique line of products has been giving tough competition to Chinese manufacturers. In fact, aaBco has become one of the best manufacturers of candles and polyresin statues in the region which earns its revenues through its B2B platform. The end goal of the company is to become the best candle and polyresin manufacturing brand on a global platform.

The journey was not an easy one- there were many instances when the company's sales dipped and it was lacking enough money to maintain the raw material supply. Soma says that it is her deep-rooted ethics, self-belief, and a great team of employees that help her achieve big milestones by overcoming every obstacle. The company ensures that every worker gets a supportive environment. Even during the starting phase of the COVID era, when most other manufacturing businesses in the country fired their employees, aaBco stood up with its artisans and kept paying their salaries. After the lockdown ended, the firm continued to manage its productivity by encompassing the physical distancing policy and reforming the plants' operating procedures.

Mrs Soma believes that learning is a life-long pursuit that helps one excel and remain ahead in this competitive era. Therefore, she not only keeps on brushing her skills but also provides personal and professional development opportunities to the employee. Apart from this, being a responsible Indian citizen, she has been creating numerous opportunities to employ the lesser privileged strata of society. By providing free candle-making courses, she has been at the forefront of empowering women in Rajasthan. For this noble cause, she has collaborated with many NGOs for vocational training. Moreover, she has been organizing many candle-making workshops and motivational seminars across the country. She also aspires to help small businesses and women entrepreneurs with effective consultation for a successful upscale.

During the last few years, Soma Singh is fundamentally re-defining the candle-making and polyresin statue business, by seamlessly joining the dots between end customers and retailers. A woman of substance, she donned several hats as a teacher, entrepreneur, social worker, and motivational speaker. For her exemplary achievements, she was felicitated with Nari Shakti Ko Pranaam Award by Brijbhoomi Foundation. She has proved that by proceeding with gumption and unbridled enthusiasm, women can achieve anything under the sun. To all the aspiring women entrepreneurs, Soma suggests not getting carried away by the various challenges, instead utilizing them to carve out new opportunities.
